Chapter 1 by Matt

Thousand of upturned faces radiated hope. Hope that had been missing in a civilisation crumbling under the impacts of plague, floods and social collapse. Hope that had viciously overturned the growing fatalism with a simple message that led to the gatherings of skyward gazes.

Chapter 2 by Ellie

At the top of those gazes, Gana looked down from his platform with a calm indifference. They believed he could help them and for now, that's all that he needed - belief. For behind him, and what really was the reason for the skyward gazes was the radiant star that would bring them all a new life.
